Corpus Juris Secundum

Section 16, Page 892:

FACT OF DEATH. Death of the person on whose estate administration is sought is a jurisdiction requisite, and while the presumption of death arising from absence may present a prima facie case sufficient to warrant a grant of administration, yet if it subsequently develops that such person was in fact alive, the administration is void.

While it is true that the presumption of death arising from a person's absence, unheard from, for a considerable length of time, see "Death Section 6", may present a prima facie case sufficient to warrant a grant of administration on his estate, the arising of such presumption does not take the case out of the operation of the general rule on the subject, and if it is made to appear that the person was in fact alive at the time such administration was granted, the administration is absolutely void. Although, that payment to an administrator of an absentee who is not in fact dead is no defense against the absentee or his legal representative, nor are costs and disbursement incurred by such administrator a legal charge against the absentee or his property, but where the administrator has paid debts of the absentee, he is subrogated to the rights of the creditors whom he has paid. It has been considered, however, that the invalidity of the administration does not relate back, but that it is invalid only the time when the presumptions of death is rebutted.

Treaty of Peace

I, Conrad Jr. James, a member of the family James, was wholly unaware that my loyal State government is subverted and occupied by the Government currently established in Washington, D.C. as "United States." It appalls me to discover that United States considers me an alien enemy by implication resulting from the current rebellion. A rebellion that is ongoing for longer than I have been alive. It further disturbs me that an offer of peace, amnesty, and pardon was offered to me and my ancestors but due to the lack of public knowledge of this offer I have until now failed to avail myself of the benefits of the Proclamations of Amnesty and Pardon offered by Presidents Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson. It was never my intent to support or give aid and comfort to any rebellion by implication or direct intent. With this act I wish the record be corrected and my rights, rights to property, and property restored. I am a loyal American.

As provided for by the Proclamation of Amnesty and Pardon by President Andrew Johnson I take and subscribe the following oath freely and of my own accord, to wit:

"I, Conrad Jr. James, do solemnly swear, in the presence of Almighty God, that I will henceforth faithfully support, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the united of the States thereunder; and that I will, in like manner, abide by and faithfully support all laws and proclamations which have been made during the existing rebellion with reference to providing help to all wounded and restore public order and safety under 50 U.S.C. 4305(b)(2), so help me God."

With this act I accept the pardon and amnesty offered to me by Presidents Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson and avail myself of all the benefits offered thereby. Proclamation No. 11 at 13 Stat 737 on December 8, 1863, Proclamation No. 14 at 13 Stat 741 on March 26, 1864, and Proclamation No. 37 at 13 Stat 758 on May 29, 1865.

This self-executing peace treaty is ratified on this 22nd day of January in the year two thousand twenty-three A.D., and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred forty-seventh. I am now at peace with United States under the Constitution of the United States and retain my rank in society as a loyal American with all the rights, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations that are my birthright. This Treaty of Peace shall also extend to my posterity so long as it is kept inviolate.

TREATY OF PEACE

(Acceptance of Amnesty Only – 2026)

Treaty of Peace

I, Conrad, a member of the family James, declare that I was wholly unaware that my lawful State government had been subsumed into or affected by conditions arising from a rebellion or insurrection that pre-dated my birth.

I further declare that it was never my intent, by act or omission, to support, aid, or give comfort to any rebellion, insurrection, or hostility against the constitutional Union of the States. Any such implication arose solely by operation of law, presumption, or lack of notice, and not by willful intent.

I have now been made aware that lawful offers of amnesty were extended by the United States through Presidential Proclamations during and following the period of rebellion, and that such amnesty remains available upon acceptance.

ACCEPTANCE OF AMNESTY
By this instrument, I knowingly, voluntarily, and expressly accept amnesty as offered by the United States through the Presidential Proclamations of Amnesty issued by Presidents Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson.

This acceptance of amnesty is made for the purpose of establishing peace, removing any presumption of hostility or disloyalty, restoring normal civil standing, and correcting the public and administrative record.

EFFECT OF AMNESTY
